MANY critics who have seen the Cleveland Americans in action this spring believ the team has an excellent chance M to cop the flag this year. The Indians walloped the Giants not a few times during their exhibition games on the training trip. The men who are the bright particular stars of the team are Jack Graney, Ray Chapman and Tris Speaker. Lee Fold, the manager of the Indians, is confident of landing near the top with his well balanced team.

McGraw had never dreamed of Hogan, but he liked the young-ster's looks and, must of all, he took a fancy to the mans of Hogan. McGraw would like to auc-round himself with Doyles, Mc-Carthys and Hogans, so he decided to give Mike a chance, and Mike went to Marilla.

Mike went to Marine.

It seemed that some writer had alped a yarn about Hogan and a paper in his home town had interpreted the story to mean that the Ghane had him signed. So Hogan feed about it and took it for granted.

At any rate, south be went, and he figured it would be all right, even if he didn't make good, for he could come back home in a month's time and go back to work in the machine shop at Cobess.
